ABOUT POOR RICHARDS

Poor Richard's Catering caters to virtually all occasions and brings a unique sense of value to its customers. Established in 1984 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, as a deli based in the heart of University City. The unique taste and style of the culinary masterpieces offered, quickly became a University City favorite. As the deli grew over the next few years, the uniquely great tasting food found itself serving corporate events, commercial and even political events across the city and surrounding counties.

Now as one of the leading caterers in the city of Philadelphia, Poor Richard's Catering sets a standard for the rest to follow. Along with catering various social and political events across Philadelphia and New Jersey, we are also one of the most preferred caterers for pharmaceutical companies, Medical doctors, and various college & university events (freshman orientations).

Turn to Poor Richard's Catering for all your event catering budget planning needs. Poor Richard's Catering is redefining the value of a great culinary presentation at events.
